Match the police station on this map and on the Mong Kok 2020 map for expansion.

Please note: Some shops are labelled with company names. Others will be labelled according to items I have bought from but never note down the name or I have seen from outside of the shop. The street layout is according to Google Maps. The buildings itself are not to 100% accurately laid out and only for illustration purposes. You are welcome to print off and share. Please do not claim the map is yours, or use it in any publications or to sell. If you do use it on your website, please state where you got it from or link back to shanniemakes.com.
